BAKING WITH MRS BUN THE BAKER

PRESS RELEASE

A recipe book for toddlers; made by toddlers…

"Baking with Mrs Bun the Baker"

Hello…this book gives toddlers and children an insight into how exciting baking can be and will inspire confidence in them, helping their dexterity, concentration, counting, weighing and measuring skills. The recipes have been tried and tested in the Mrs Bun the Baker kitchen in Cholsey by my regular cooking classes for all ages. The recipes are easy to follow, simple to make and can be made in just over an hour. There's also no need for pans on the hob, you only need to bake in the oven, it is hob-less cooking. Dip in and out as often as you like but, most importantly, I hope you enjoy baking from my book.

Mrs Bun the Baker started two years ago after twenty years of inspiring and helping children gain their GCSEs and A' Levels whilst working at a local Secondary School in Wallingford. A qualified food technology teacher, she decided to take her love of baking out of the class room and into the community.

Mrs Bun the Baker has been published in Home Pride's 50 Favourites for Fred's 50th, with Mrs Bun the Bakers delicious Marbled Choccy Orange cake. She was asked to provide a recipe for the Didcot Christmas Bake Off book, launched at the local Tesco Supermarket; Brilliant Baking Magazine published a six page article on Mrs Bun the Baker. Social Media has meant plenty of online engagement, including Peter Lord, from Aardman being very impressed with her WereRabbit Carrot Cake interpretation and Claudia Winkleman loving the sewing bee biscuits.

Mrs Bun the Baker apart from the humorous engagement with her audience on Facebook and Twitter also Blogs for Humble Tart Kitchen.
